

Notification for NABARD Student Internship Scheme (SIS) 2024-25

The objective of the Scheme is to assign short term tasks/projects/studies useful and relevant to NABARD, to talented students pursuing post-graduate degree (completing/completed first year) in Agriculture and allied disciplines (Veterinary, Fisheries, etc.), Agri-business, Economics, Social Sciences and Management from Institutes/ Universities of repute or students pursuing 5 year integrated courses completing/completed 4th year of their course. Indian students studying abroad are also eligible for SIS 2024-25.

The scheme is expected to provide valuable feedback with a fresh perspective through studies/projects undertaken by the students on themes of interest to NABARD.

(A) Total Seats

Total number of seats for NABARD SIS 2024-25 is 40 (35 seats for Regional Offices/TEs and 05 seats for Head Office). Each RO/TE will be allocated only 01 seat under SIS 2024-25. Detailed break up of seats is given in Annexure I.

(B) Broad Themes/Areas

The broad objective of SIS 2024-25 will be to examine topics of contemporary relevance as well as to assess/gauge the impact of various NABARD interventions at the ground level. The SIS 2024-25 scheme will also serve as an exercise for documentation of success stories of NABARD's projects/programmes/schemes/activities at the field level.

To ensure that we have a decent number of reports on a particular topic so that we can draw reasonable insights, all interns selected under SIS 2024-25 will be required to study one of the following four NABARD interventions only:

- a. KCC coverage/issues & strategy to improve lending through KCC
- b. Business diversification of PACS for improving their profitability
- c. Smart Agriculture – IOT and Drone Devices for precision farming: Implementation, acceptability and challenges

d. In addition to the above three themes, ROs/TEs may assign a state specific theme to the interns.
